

Príncipe de Viana Edición Limitada 2015

91 points James Suckling

July 2019. Príncipe de Viana Edición Limitada 2015 receives 90 points from wine critic James Suckling.

About the wine, he writes: “attractive, bright red-berry and cherry aromas here with a ripe feel on the palate that delivers plenty of rich plums and a smooth, fullish finish”.

Príncipe de Viana Edición Limitada comprises the best of three different vineyards and three grape varieties, distinct terroirs with their own personalities which have been assembled to create a unique blend.

This philosophy has deserved the recognition of influential magazines such as Wine Enthusiast, which granted Príncipe de Viana Edición Limitada 90 points, experts like Parker (The Wine Advocate) and Peñín as well as international competitions such as the International Competition, Berliner Wein Trophy and Mundus Vini. These are most recently joined by Suckling’s fantastic rating.

James Suckling is an American wine critic whose influence is rapidly increasing. His tasting notes serve as a guide for distributors, importers, sommeliers and buyers when making their wine lists, hence the importance for producers to receive good ratings that ratify the quality of their wines.
