

Príncipe de Viana Rosado Garnacha

Best Buy Wine Enthusiast

June 2016. Príncipe de Viana Rosado Garnacha has been confirmed as Best Buy by American WINEENTHUSIAST magazine.

Michael Schachner describes the wine: "This reddish-pink quaffer smells like cherry gumballs. Soft and flush, with mild rose hip and berry flavors, this finishes dry and hollow".

The recommendation as Best Buy is especially relevant because it indicates the excellent relation between the quality and the price of a wine. The fact that renowned Wine Enthusiast has given Príncipe de Viana Rosado Garnacha such a classification, has a special significance.

Wine Enthusiast's recent rating adds up to the long list of awards & accolades received by Príncipe de Viana wines, making them a reference for quality and character worldwide.

International experts and press have praised Príncipe de Viana's philosophy of quality. Experts such as Peñín in Spain, or the International Wine Cellar or The Wine Advocate (Robert Parker) in America, have awarded Príncipe de Viana wines with excellent scores and critics.
