

Príncipe de Viana Viura

Gold Medal Berliner Wein Trophy

February 2017. Príncipe de Viana Viura 2016 has received a Gold Medal from prestigious Berliner Wein Trophy.

Príncipe de Viana Viura 2016 is a deliciously fresh wine with a bright and clean pale yellow colour with greenish reflexes. Aromas of white flowers intertwine with intense tropical fruits, in a perfect harmony of lime, pineapples and bananas notes, and delicate touches of eucalytus. Supple, fresh, balanced and pleasant on a palate full of fruit flavours.

One of the most influential international wine competitions, the Berliner Wein Trophy is gaining popularity year by year, thanks to the accuracy of its expert jury.

In addition to the gold medal for the viura, further two Príncipe de Viana wines have obtained from the German competition the rating equivalent to a silver medal: Príncipe de Viana Chardonnay 2016 and Príncipe de Viana Crianza 2013.

The awards given by the Berliner Wein Trophy to the Príncipe de Viana wines add up to the many which this brand has been granted over the past consecutive years. For instance, from the most recognized international wine competitions, experts like Guía Peñín, and frequent recommendations made by the media.

